Announcement and Call for Papers

The 59th Eastern Snow Conference (ESC) will be held in Stowe, Vermont, USA 5–7 June 2002. The scientific program is open to theoretical, experimental, and operational studies of snow, ice, and winter hydrology. Major scientific themes include arctic research and climate system. The snow theme is “Snow and Ice Impacts on Operations: Theory and Applications.” Student travel assistance and several student paper awards are available. You are invited to submit an abstract for an oral or a poster presentation. An abstract of 150-300 words should be submitted by 31 January 2002 to the program chair:

Mr. Ken Rancourt
Mount Washington Observatory
2936 White Mountain Highway
P.O. Box 2310
North Conway, NH 03860
E-mail: k.rancourt@mountwashington.org
Email submissions are encouraged.

All papers will be published in the ESC Proceedings. In addition, Hydrological Processes (HP) will publish refereed papers from the meeting. The subject matter of these papers must fit within the scope of the journal. If you would like your paper to be considered for journal publication, please indicate this on your abstract and submit four copies of your paper to Janet Hardy (ESC/HP editor) by 1 April 2002. For more information contact the ESC/HP editor, Janet Hardy or the HP co-editor, John Pomeroy:
