Announcement and Call for Papers

The 74nd Eastern Snow Conference (ESC) will be held at University of Ottawa, Ottawa, Canada, 6-8 June, 2017. The scientific program is open to sessions on theoretical, experimental, and operational studies of snow, ice, and winter hydrology. This year's general theme is "REMOTE SENSING OF THE CRYOSPHERE". The ESC has only plenary (paper and poster viewing) sessions, allowing time to view and discuss the research of each participant. You are invited to submit an abstract for an oral or a poster presentation (please indicate type). An abstract of 200-250 words should be submitted by 17 March 2017 to the program chair:

Dr. Alexandre Roy

Alexandre.Roy.1@UMontreal.ca

Students are encouraged to enter the ESC Student Paper Competitions. The winner of the best submitted student paper will receive the Wiesnet Medal, a $750 prize. The Campbell Scientific Canada Award of $500 will be awarded to the submitted paper demonstrating the most innovative use of technology in the gathering of data. In addition, the David Hewitt Miller Student Poster Award of $100 will be awarded to the best student poster.

To be considered for the Wiesnet and Campbell awards please send an electronic copy of the paper with the supervisor's endorsement (separate email) to the Chair of the Research Committee (S. Helfrich), no later than 28 April 2017. Please consult the ESC web site for conditions and details.

Mr. Sean Helfrich
